In this Notice of Meeting, the posting of an agenda item as a matter to be discussed in open session is not intended to limit or require discussion of that matter in open session if it is otherwise appropriate to discuss the matter in executive session, such as consultation with its attorneys (Section 551.071), deliberations regarding real estate (Section 551.072), deliberations regarding a specific officer or employee (Section 551.074), and deliberations regarding security (Section 551.076). If, during the discussion of any agenda item, a matter is raised that is appropriate for discussion in executive session, the Board may, as permitted by law, adjourn into executive session to deliberate on the matter. Posting an agenda item as a matter to be discussed in the executive session is not intended to limit or require discussion of the matter to be addressed in the executive session. The Board may discuss in open session any matter for which notice has been given in the notice of open meeting, including an agenda item posted for executive session. The Board will not take action on any agenda item in the executive session, whether posted for open or executive session discussion. Sec. 551.072. Deliberation regarding real property; Closed Meeting: a governmental body may conduct a closed meeting to deliberate the purchase, exchange, lease, or value of real property if deliberation in an open meeting would have a detrimental effect on the position of the governmental body in negotiations with a third person.
